

Project Management Firms FY2020

Major engineering & project management firms have been increasingly attracted to the U.S. military and intelligence budgets. They've branched out into profitable business sectors of war such as base operations support services (BOSS), logistics, prepositioned stock, maintenance, consultancy, office work, and information technology. AECOM, Fluor, Jacobs, KBRWyle, and Tetra Tech are five of the big project management firms that the U.S. military contracts with regularly.
